

Policy on Honoring Past Presidents and Other Long-time Board Members

1. Past presidents of KSRA who are no longer serving on the Board shall be entitled to non-voting membership on the Board of Directors for as long as desired, including receiving notice of the meetings and invitation to attend meetings under the policies related to any council representative or ad hoc committee chair.
2. Those who have made extraordinary contributions to KSRA through long-serving, committed service on the Board of Directors may be honored by the Board, at the advice of the Executive Committee, by the designation of "Board Member Emeritus," with the same rights to attendance at Board of Directors meetings as past presidents.
