Exhibitors who will have author signings at their booths are asked to complete this form. KSRA will make every effort to make sure that the position of your booth allows a reasonable amount of space for such signings with a minimum disruption to neighboring exhibitors. If you need an extra table for signing, it must be included on your Application and Exhibit Space Contract and paid for.

This application must be returned by August 1, 2015. Those who complete this form will have the information printed in the conference program and in the virtual program. If the form is received after the deadline, no promise can be made that it will be in the program.

If you will have more than ONE author signing at your booth, complete a separate form for each author. There is no charge for booth signings. If you have more than one author, complete this form for each author.

CRITICAL: This form only applies to author signings IN the exhibit hall. It is completely separate from any conference author breakfasts, teas, and other activities. This form does not replace any forms required for those conference author activities.
